Sherry earned her CTC certification in 1987. This Certification can be likened to a Masters Degree program for Travel Consultants. Her final project was on the subject of "Dealing with Difficult People". Fortunately, Sherry's wonderful clientele don't put her learned skills to use all that often.

As an award-winning photographer, she loves to travel to beautiful, interesting and colorful destinations. Some of her favorite travels have taken her to East & Southern Africa, Italy, France and Prague, all great subjects for photo-enthusiasts.

Born and raised in New England, Sherry still has strong connections to the Northeast and returns often. Each time, she attempts to visit a place she has never been before, or stay at a new property.

Sherry just recently returned from Boston where she attended a Red Sox game at Fenway Park, something she hasn't had the opportunity to do since 1978...what a thrill! There's no other ballpark like Fenway, and no other fans like Red Sox fans. It's not just baseball, it's a Happening! Everyone should experience this at least once.
