Tami hails from Southern California. After attending Orange Coast College, Tami tried several jobs before moving to the Bay Area and enrolling in the San Francisco School of Travel. The rest is history! Prior to joining Casto, Tami worked for a variety of travel companies, including Travelocity.com and the Price is Right, where she arranged travel packages for the show.

Since Tami joined Rascals In Paradise, she has enjoyed developing customized family itineraries for her clients. She always brings eye for creative problem solving to each itinerary. This compliments her extensive personal travel background, which includes visits to Europe, Mexico, Hawaii, the Caribbean, Central America and the America's. Tami is well-versed in anticipating the needs of her clients and proactively addresses special requests.
